-- Respondent.

This Bail Petition is coming before me on this day filed by Thiru R.John Jeyaseelan Jacop for Petitioner and APP for the prosecution side, heard bothsides perused the records and this court passed the following.

ORDER

This case was registered by the respondent police against the Petitioner / accused U/s. 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC and 4 of TNPWH Act.

The Petitioner / accused was arrested and remanded to Judicial Custody on 10.10.2020. The counsel for the petitioner submitted that Petitioner / accused is innocent and he is no way connected with the allegation that has been level as against him in the present case.

Heard bothsides. Records Perused. Upon considering the fact of the case, Judicial Custody for the past 10 days for the alleged offence U/s. 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC and 4 of TNPWH Act and whether the accused have committed the offence or not can be looked in the trial. The presumption of innocence is in favor of the petitioner / accused till the accusation is proved. Here the accusation is to be proved in the trial only.

Considering the facts and circumstances, and period of judicial custody and also in the interest of justice, in my considered view of opinion is that both the accused can be released on bail by imposing suitable condition for his presence. Hence, I am inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail on the following conditions.

// 2 //

1. The Petitioner / accused is directed to execute own bond for sum of Rs.10,000/-to the satisfaction of The Jail Superintendent, District Prison, Virudhunagar District.
