Recruitment
6. Recruitment to the service shall be made by the appointing authority according to the procedure laid down below -

(1) Head Assistant- By selection from amongst the Upper Division Assistants with at least 10(ten) years of service as such to their credit including Supervisory Assistants in any Chief Judicial Magistrates Establishment (Ministerial).

NOTE – Vacancies to the posts of Head Assistant shall be advertised by the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned inviting applications from suitable persons fulfilling the requirements of the posts. On receipt of the applications the Selection Board consisting of the Chief Judicial Magistrate of the District concerned shall assess the comparative merit and ability of the candidates for the purpose of recommending the names of suitable candidates to the District & sessions Judge concerned. Thereafter, the Chief Judicial Magistrate shall forward the recommendation of the Selection Board together with the character rolls and other relevant papers concerning the applications to the District & sessions Judge concerned who shall make the selection strictly on merit and make the appointment. The select list shall remain valid for one year from the date of recommendation of the Selection Board.

(2) Supervisory Assistant – By promotion from amongst the Upper Division Assistants of the Chief Judicial Magistrates Establishment (Ministerial) concerned on the basis of seniority-cum-merit who have rendered not less than 7 years of service in the Chief Judicial Magistrate's Establishment (Ministerial) concerned out of which at least 3 years shall be of continuous service as Upper Division Assistant on the 1st day of the year in which the promotion is made.

NOTE – For the purpose of promotion of the Upper Division Assistant, the Chief Judicial Magistrate shall prepare a select list at the beginning of each year taking into account the number of vacancies likely to occur during the year in question. The Chief Judicial Magistrate shall associate the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate and Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate in the selection. The criterion for selection shall be on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and the select list shall remain valid for one year from the date of recommendation of the Selection Board. It shall be reviewed after one year and all those eligible shall again be considered.
(3) Upper Division Assistant- By promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst Lower Division Assistants of the Chief Judicial Magistrates Establishment (Ministerial) concerned who have rendered not less than 5 years of service as Lower Division Assistant in the Chief Judicial Magistrate Establishment (Ministerial) concerned on the 1st day of the year in which the promotion is made.

NOTE – For the purpose of promotion, the Chief Judicial Magistrate shall prepare a select list at the beginning of each year taking into account the number of vacancies likely to occur during the year in question. The Chief Judicial Magistrate shall associate the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate and the Sub-divisional Judicial Magistrate in the Selection. The criterion for selection shall be on the basis of seniority-cum-merit. The select list shall remain valid for one year. It shall be reviewed after one year and all those eligible shall again be considered.

(4) Lower Division Assistants – (a) By direct recruitment on the basis of a competitive examination to be conducted by the Chief Judicial Magistrate at the beginning of each year unless otherwise directed by Government in this behalf.
NOTE- At the beginning of each calendar year the Chief Judicial Magistrate shall call for applications to fill up temporary vacancies of any kind of posts which are likely to occur in course of the year in their respective establishments. On receipt of applications by a specified date, a test shall be held and a list of all candidates suitable for appointment to the post of Lower Division Assistant shall be prepared in order of merit by the Chief Judicial Magistrate. The list shall remain valid for one year unless it is exhausted earlier and one such list shall be prepared every year. The Chief Judicial Magistrate shall make all appointments during the year from such a select list. The syllabus for such tests shall be as specified in the schedule;

(b) by selection strictly on the basis of merit from amongst the Copyist Typists of the Chief Judicial Magistrates Establishment having the requisite educational qualifications as required for direct recruitment of Lower Division Assistants who have rendered not less than 7 years of service on the first day of the year in which the selection is made;

(c) by selection on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst Grade IV staff of the Chief Judicial Magistrate's Establishment (Ministerial) concerned who have passed the H.S.L.C. or equivalent examination and have rendered at least 7 years of (7)
continuous service in the Chief Judicial Magistrate's Establishment (Ministerial) on the 1st day of the year in which selection is made.

NOTE – (1) The proportion of vacancies to be filled in any year according to clauses (a), (b) & (c) of sub-rule (4) of this rule shall be 80:10: 10 respectively. In the event of sufficient number of qualified or suitable persons not being available in category (b) &(c), the balance shall be made up from category (a), i.e., through direct recruitment. Here vacancies shall include both permanent and temporary vacancies.

(ii) Appointment by selection under clauses (a) and (c) of sub-rule (4) of this rule shall be made by Chief Judicial Magistrate from amongst the eligible Copyist Typists and Grade IV staff.
